Hello everyone, I'm Rick from ExpressMe.

Today I'm going to show you how to view a story tile in our app.

The idea of the story tile is that it tells a little story. This can be a simple step-by-step plan, for example for your morning routine. It can also be a story about your vacation, but it can also be a sequence, for example how to make coffee.

The idea is that you simply click in the app and then get to see a mini-presentation.

As you can see here, we have a tile for our morning routine. When we click on it, the story tile opens and then we see that there are four steps.

The morning routine starts with waking up, then we click on next. Then we see hey, getting dressed. The next step is having breakfast and finally we go for a bike ride.

The idea is very simple, but you can set up all kinds of things yourself in a very easy way.
