Hello, I'm going to show you what a story tile is. We have an example here of a morning routine.

And the idea of a story tile is that you can show multiple images and tell a kind of story. An example of this is the morning routine. So if I click on this, you can see that a kind of booklet opens.

You can see that there are multiple steps. The idea of the morning routine is that we first wake up, and then we can click here on next and previous. That lets us say: okay, then we get dressed.

And next we brush our teeth. Finally we eat breakfast, and those are actually the steps of this story. And this way you can tell anything in the form of a little story.
